STAGE 1 FIRE RESTRICTIONS TO BEGIN FRIDAY ON UINTA-WASATCH-CACHE NATIONAL FOREST

Salt Lake City, June 16, 2021– Fire restrictions will be implemented on the Uinta-Wasatch-Cache National Forest on Friday, June 18, 2021 for public health and safety and to reduce the potential for human-caused fires.

Fires, campfires, and charcoal briquettes are allowed only in designated areas. The restrictions also limit smoking to within enclosed vehicles, buildings, in designated areas, or while stopped in an area at least 3 feet in diameter that is barren or cleared of any flammable material.

Additional restrictions may be applied as conditions warrant. Fire restrictions typically remain in effect until significant precipitation is received.

Visitors should use extreme caution when recreating on national forest lands. Fireworks are prohibited on all Federal lands.
